Dull season made active by early offerings of new spring goods. We want the ladies to understand that we show the latest line of new and desirable dress goods and trimmings to be found in the city without any exception, an inspection invited.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.

Attend our special sale Saturday next.
ARCHIE REID.

The rapid growth of Brown Bros. trade is proof that their goods and prices are right.

Attend our special sale Saturday next.
ARCHIE REID.

New spring dress goods at Bort, Bailey & Co's.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD—A reward of ten dollars will be paid to any person who can buy a genuine Dongola Kid shoe for less than $3.00 equal to our two forty shoe made by E. F. Reed & Co., of Rochester. A printed warrant is given with every pair. You can save money by trading at the Bargain Shoe store.
BROWN BROS.

With every pair of kid gloves sold at our next Saturday sale we will give free an Egyptian glove fastener.
ARCHIE REID.

WANTED—A young man to act as traveling salesman in the furniture line.
M. HANSON & CO.

The Story of the Paines—Van Dyke at Sutherland's bookstore.

Our second grand hosiery sale occurs Saturday next in connection with which we shall offer an entire new line of kid and fabric gloves at very attractive prices. See ad.
ARCHIE REID.

Our line of double fold all-wool dress goods is immense, every new shade brought out this season we show in this grade of goods. We are more than contented we can please every lady.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.

Down they go—goods marked down from 15 to 25 per cent. at Sutherland's store and furniture store, 18 and 20, North Main street. Come and see to yourself.

One for Cold Feet—We guarantee our men's dollar bootee Arctic a sure cure for cold feet. Not to be compared to the trash around town.
BROWN BROS.

An elegant line of the latest things in French novelties for dresses, new and beautiful styles at Bort, Bailey & Co.

Try a pair of oil grain shoes for $3.50, at Minor's, opposite P. O.

Good maple wood at $5 per cord. Best sorted maple at $6.
J. H. GATLEY.

Furniture, organs, locks, umbrellas, riggers and sewing machines repaired. Chairs recovered, sars, abours, knives and lawn mowers sharpened. Patterns and models made to order by Spence Taylor, No. 12 South River street.

House that cost $2,000 with barn, two cisterns, all on two full lots and centrally located, for $1,000.
O. E. BOWLES.

Forty rolls of new extra super ingrain carpets now ready for inspection. Patterns and coloring new and not to be found elsewhere. It is for your interest to look the line over before purchasing.
BORT, BAILEY & CO.

44 acre farm, with good, new house and near the city, must be sold soon at the best price obtainable.
O. E. BOWLES.

A very choice little farm of ten acres adjoining the city limits, was bought by its present owner, two years ago for $2,100 cash. There is a good house, barn and tobacco shed, an orchard of 50 trees and small farm. The owner has decided to permanently locate in another state and to effect an immediate sale for that purpose, will sacrifice $400 of its cost and actual value. $1,000 of the purchase amount can remain on mortgage at 6 per cent. This is a better bargain than gold dollars at 80 cents.
O. E. BOWLES.

For a bang up, good wearing shoe, the Rock Bottom, at Minor's, O. P. O., for $2.50, take the cake.

BRIEFLETS.

—Attend church to-morrow.

—"Starlight" at the opera house this evening.

—"Lady Audley's Secret" at Leppin's hall this evening.

—The first patient for the city hospital arrived to-day.

—Some one will get the gold watch at Leppin's hall this evening.

—The Gleaner Club—heavy name that will give a social party at Old Fellows hall this evening.

—Randall White will come before the municipal court on Tuesday next for trial. It is said that he will plead guilty.

—The ward committee will meet this evening at the office of A. A. Jackson to nominate officers for the republican club.

—Candidates for city officers are beginning to come to the front. There will be no lack of candidates in either party.

—The jurors for the April term of the Rock county circuit court were drawn to-day. The names appear in this paper.

—Mr. J. L. Spellman, the popular cigar maker, returned from a three weeks trip in the northern part of the state yesterday.

—A number of Old Fellows from this city will go to Wisconsin next week to attend the Grand Encampment of Odd Fellows.

—Remember the adjourned meeting of the Republican Club for the council chamber on Monday evening. Let there be a full attendance.

—W. C. Helm and E. B. Martin, students of Beloit college, will spend Sunday with J. V. Noterose and E. J. Cunningham, of this city.

—A procession of seven double teams came in from Johnston this morning, all being loaded with tobacco. The procession was an imposing one.

—The funeral services over the remains of Mrs. Emory Danner will be held to-morrow afternoon at one o'clock from the Methodist church at Footville.

—The third of the series of Masonic sessions will be held at their hall on next Friday evening, March 2d. The music will be furnished by Anderson's orchestra.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. Sleeper will take place next Monday, at one o'clock, from the depot, the remains being taken from that place to the cemetery.

—Mrs. Emory Danner, the unfortunate woman who attempted suicide at Footville on Thursday night, died last evening at 9 o'clock, from the effects of her wound.

—Literary and musical entertainment at Court Street M. E. Sunday school room by the Good Templars. Supper will be served before and after the entertainment.

—The Gleaner club—not so styled because it had Coe for a member, but for reasons not for publication at present, will hold a social and dance at Old Fellows hall this evening. Dancing will commence at 8 o'clock sharp.

—The town of Newark, by its treasurer, Mr. Richard Ball, called at the court house this morning and settled with County Treasurer Miles, paying the sum of $2,073.64, the amount of the estate and county tax assessed to that town.

—The committee appointed by the Republican Club for the purpose of soliciting and reporting permanent officers, will meet at A. A. Jackson's law office this evening at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be hand promptly.

—The water works stand pipe is showing up to good advantage. Eight courses of iron are now riveted, and the stand pipe is upwards of forty feet high or within one course of iron of half its height. It will make a good landmark when completed.

—This evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garrett in the fourth ward, Miss Kate Lutz and Mr. James Skelly will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The many friends of the young people will wish them joy and a prosperous journey through life.

—County Clerk Williams is signing for some paper publisher to come this way and arrange and publish a new map of Rock county. The one now in use in his office was published in 1858, and is about as reliable and useful as an almanac of that date.

—Home-made corn bread and corn beef hash will be served by the ladies of the Rectory Society at their supper in the Kenilworth block next Tuesday evening. Hot waffles and fresh maple syrup will also be included in the bill of fare. Price 15 cents.

—On Monday Patriarchs L. M. Nelson, J. F. Hutchinson, S. B. Kenyon and James A. Patterson will go to Wausau as delegates from Rock River Grand Encampment No. 3, this city, to the Grand Encampment of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which assembles in that city on Tuesday.

—Ex-Sheriff R. T. Pember brought into the city this morning his '87 crop of tobacco from his Johnston farm. There were seven large sleigh loads with fourteen heavy horses, which made one of the attractions on Milwaukee street as the little procession passed through the city to the tobacco warehouses to unload.

—The Hon. Alexander Graham has been invited to deliver an address on Mormonism at the Congregational church one week from to-morrow evening, and has accepted. The address will be of special interest, as Mr. Graham understands the subject as thoroughly as any man in the country. It comes Mr. Graham will have a full house.

—The few people who attended the "Starlight" entertainment at the opera house last evening, speak of the performance as first class in every respect, in fact it is said to be the best troupe that has visited the city in a long time. Had the company been properly advertised a full house would undoubtedly have been present last evening.

—Mr. E. H. Bennett received a dispatch late last evening, from Hon. J. A. Sleeper, of Chicago, announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. T. O. Sleeper, aged ninety-two years. For many years deceased resided in this city, and will be kindly remembered by all old settlers. Her remains will be brought to Janesville for burial in Oak Hill cemetery.

PHIL IN JANESVILLE.

—Mr. M. T. Riker, who went south several weeks ago to visit his brother, Mr. Chas. Riker, in Florida, returned home last evening, convinced that Wisconsin climate—even in mid-winter—is preferable to that of the far south. His trip through the south was greatly enjoyed, however, and he met many former Janesville people in his travels, all appearing well and prosperous.

—In the circuit court to-day, in the case of David Merrill against Thomas Moran, Judge Bennett rendered judgment in favor of the defendant, ordering that the complaint be dismissed and that they make and file the finding in accordance with the opinion. The divorce case of Mann against Mann was adjourned until Tuesday at 9 a. m.

—Madison Democrat:—The sparrow—poor little creature—some of them are beginning to realize that they lived through the terrible blizzards of winter. They are joyous now. The sparrow is not one closely watched and cared for. Well, they are nice little creatures—and yet many people set traps for them—catch sparrow and make pipe-sparrow pies.

—Mr. Harry Standish, stage manager, with the Jarrett combination, is a gentleman capable of making friends—and good ones—on short notice. He fell into the hands of Chas. Atwood this morning, and now he thinks Janesville the best town he has struck this season. Chas. knows how to show up the Bower City to strangers when occasion offers, and he seldom allows an occasion to go by.

—The Rogers combination, which has delighted theatre-goers during the week at Leppin's hall, close their engagement this evening, presenting "Lady Audley's Secret." "Always on Hand" draw a good house last evening, and the company gave the best of satisfaction. The company has succeeded in pleasing the public during their week's stay, which is the best evidence of the ability and success of the individual players.

—Ostauqua Circle Monday evening, February 27. Quotations about America. Questions in the February Obituary: the last half on Physiology. Plan of Salvation and Readings from Washington, Irving. The programme for the evening will include exercises appropriate to these noted birthdays—Washington, the founder of the C. L. S. G., and Longfellow's. Bring the masses—The Star Spangled Banner—your songs and badges. Come every one.

—The remains of Mrs. Caroline, wife of Mr. Michael Shred, arrived in the city at 5:45 last evening from their home at Sioux Falls, Dakota, and were taken from the cars direct to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mathias, town of Rock, parents of deceased. The funeral was held at one o'clock this afternoon, the remains being buried in the Afton cemetery. Mrs. Shred died on Tuesday, leaving a family of seven children, one a babe only a few days. She resided for many years in the town of Rock, removing with her husband to Dakota a few years ago. She was about twenty-eight years of age.

—The examination of Hegarty and Kelly, charged with holding up the stranger Morris at the depot a few days ago, was taken up in the municipal court this morning and the defendants were held for trial, which has been set for Monday March 3. Bail was fixed at $250 each. Morris, the principal witness in the case, was required to give bond in the sum of fifty dollars to appear at that time as a witness. It is now claimed that Kelly will endeavor to clear Hegarty, by throwing the crime on someone else. He claims that Kelly did not have anything to do with it, that a young man named Bishop, from the country, was with him at the time.

—The Misses Kathie and Mary Bauman were pleasantly surprised last evening by a large number of their young friends calling at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bauman, Mineral Point avenue. Their coming was a complete surprise to the young ladies, yet they were all hospitably received and entertained and the evening was pleasantly and joyously spent in music, recitation, games, etc. Refreshments were served in abundance and all had a right jolly time. The occasion was the sixteenth birthday of Miss Kathie Bauman. In the afternoon large party of ladies assembled at the same home and celebrated the forty-first birthday of Mrs. Bauman, in a very pleasant manner.

—The following, from the Fond du Lac Commonwealth, will be read with interest by all the old residents in Janesville, who will recall the names mentioned, with pleasure. Years ago—about thirty years—the Langrishe & Atwater combination was considered at home in Janesville. "John Langrishe, of the former Langrishe & Atwater theatre, and whose drooleries were so severe on buttons, is publishing a newspaper at Warner, Dakota. Dan's hall, which used to resound with the mirth-provoking plays presented by Langrishe & Atwater, are well remembered by the old residents of Fond du Lac. The Amundsen Block of Langrishe and the Lady Sorely O'Leary of McKibben, as well as Toodies and many other of the old time faces, always captivated a crowd."

—The Whitewater Register: That pink of a thief, "Leo Lequeux," who forged among the Normal school books and specimens two years ago last summer and was brought to grief by Ruddy's persistent efforts, was arrested at Nashville by Cincinnati authorities last week for a similar offense. The fellow now masquerades under the title of "O. L. Sykes." His present story is that he is a Russian by birth. He is claimed to be a deaf mute in one case, and went without speaking to any one for over seven months. His last offense was stealing a valuable microscope outfit, "W. R. Taggart," "Prof. Douglas," "Prof. Lee," "Prof. Cameron," and "Prof. Arde" are some of the names by which he has made himself known since leaving Elkhorn jail.

—The opinion of an old and well-known merchant is given in a few words: "I think Dr. Bull's Congo Syrup is the best cough medicine that is made."

—LUTHER M. BLACK, Beloit, Ind. "Disordered nature oftentimes breaks forth in strange eruptions, and the result of it all is pain. New Salvation Oil will cure this very pain to the right about at the trifling cost of only 25 cents."

PHIL IN JANESVILLE.

Some Recollections of the Little General Before He Became Famous.

He Once Bought Horses in Janesville for His Cavalry Regiment.

MR. GRAHAM'S INTERVIEW.

The Hon. Alexander Graham was seen on the streets to-day, and when he was interviewed on presidential candidates, he said, "By the way, do you know that General Phil Sheridan once lived in Janesville?"

The reporter answered no. "Well he did," responded Mr. Graham, "and I will tell you about it."

"During the summer of 1863, a modest young Irishman came here to buy horses for the government. He wanted them for a cavalry regiment. He located his headquarters at the lower bridge and hired a corral and stable of Charles T. Wilcox. He bought about a thousand horses, enough for his first regiment of cavalry."

"Did you get acquainted with him?" asked the reporter.

"Yes, I know him well. He frequently took a little drive with me. At that time I owned a spanking pair of black horses, and he was very fond of riding behind them."

"When did he leave the city?"

"It was about the first of October, that he suddenly changed his base and left the city. I did not know at the time that he belonged to the regular army, nor did I know that his front name was Phil, so that when later he began to read the wonderful military exploits of Phil Sheridan, I did not know that it was the very modest, intelligent, young Irishman whose acquaintance I had made and whom I only knew as a buyer of cavalry horses. I took quite a fancy to him, he was so modest, agreeable and intelligent, that each morning when I drove down to his corral and found him gone, I felt not a little sorry that so agreeable a fellow had suddenly departed. Time passed on, and the name and time of Phil Sheridan, General Sheridan, and 'Little Phil,' sounded not only throughout the land, but throughout the world."

"Have you ever met him since that time?"

"Yes," said Mr. Graham, "and under circumstances that furnished a very pleasant incident. Several years later, and after the war was over, the daily Gazette announced that General Sheridan and party were on their way to Janesville, and that he had accepted an invitation to stop over a train in Janesville, and hold a reception, and that everybody was invited to call and see this 'man of war.' I among many others, called on the general, and as I entered the room he stepped forward and said, 'How do you do, Mr. Graham?' 'How do you do, general, I suppose it is,' was my reply. 'Seemingly to apprehend that I did not recognize him, he said, 'what did you do with those black horses you had when I was here? Looking at him I at once recognized the horse-buyer of '63, and I said to him in a low tone of voice and with a twinkle of the eye, 'are you that Irishman who was here in '63 buying horses?' He answered quickly and with seeming wit, 'Yes, I am that same Irishman.'"

"What about Sheridan's strength?"

"I think Phil Sheridan could put a light-weight democratic candidate, and drive them from the field as readily as he did General Jubal Early from the valley of the Shenandoah. If Phil was the candidate, wouldn't the boys want Sheridan's kid? I tell you it would make the old men jump of the campaign of 1880."

"Do you think Sheridan could fill the office of president well?"

"Yes," said Mr. Graham, "Phil would enter upon the duties of the office far better qualified than was General Grant, who really (especially his last term) stands with our very best presidents. Phil is all right, but then I have no idea he would leave a post suited to his education and his tastes, one where he can serve his country for life, for the presidency even."

A WORK OF ART.

There is now on exhibition at the book store of R. W. King, a crayon portrait of Miss Paula Shields. The work was executed by her sister, Miss Nevada Shields, at the art academy in Toledo, Ohio, and presented to her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Shields, of the town of Harmony. Miss Shields exhibits rare ability as an artist. For the past year she has been connected with the art school at Toledo. She works in India ink, oil and crayon, and is already recognized as an artist of no ordinary talent. Her many friends in the city and county will rejoice in her success.

THOUGHTFUL SENSIBILITY.

The Oaledonian Society have decided to donate the net proceeds of their concert to the city hospital. The concert which is to be given at Myers opera house or the evening of the 9th of March by the celebrated Danner family, is one of rare merit. This fact in connection with the donation by the society, should warrant a crowded house. The public are sure to get the worth of their money in either direction.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 25 degrees above zero. Light snow with northwest wind. At one o'clock p. m. the register was 22 degrees above zero. Light snow with northwest wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was at zero and 41 degrees above zero.

HALITUS MATTERS.

The Annual Convention of the Officers of the Wisconsin National Guard will occur at the capital.

The Wisconsin militia stands at the head. The state has the best drilled companies of infantry, cavalry and artillery in the Wisconsin Light Guard, the Milwaukee Light Guard squadron, and the Milwaukee Light Battery respectively. These are the companies which won the prizes at the International Military Encampment, in Chicago, last summer.

During the past year two companies were mustered out, one at Janesville and the other at Eau Claire. One new company has been admitted, the Hudson Guards, which takes the place of the Eau Claire company in the 3d regiment. In the state there are now thirty-two companies of infantry, one of cavalry and one of artillery. The maximum number of men allowed to a company under the new militia law, is sixty-five, and many of the commands have their full quotas, the average being about fifty.

Fully 18,000 men are now ready for duty at a moment's notice. These, with those who are not now in actual connection with a company, but who have served their time, would make a total of 25,000 well-drilled soldiers who could be placed in the field in any part of the Badger state within twenty-four hours.

Much of this excellence in the militia service of the state is due to the effort and faithful devotion of Adjutant-General C. P. Chapman. He lives in a military atmosphere, so near to the interests of the national guard approach his nature. He deserves and is receiving from prominent military personages much credit for the high standard to which his zeal has brought the militia of Wisconsin.
